Phone line report:

Oct/Nov 2007

Michelle still has the phone and is happy to do one more month. She is pleased to report that calls are coming in at a more regular rate 1 every 2 days. She had several old members looking for meeting times. She arranged lifts for 5 people only 1 showed up. She had no response from the tv show that Conor from Dublin had called her about. She did mention 7-8 calls were from people who'd been in touch with her via Shaftsbury sq. Hospital. Its good to have feed back to hear how people find out about the phone line.

Jeanne is owed £10.00 for credit for phone, receipt included with this report.

Jeanne would like to announce that her year as co-ordinator is up in January and is looking to hand the service position over at this time

That's all for this month.

PR report:

I have been approached by the Downshire group to organize a presentation, in ward 15, to staff there to further relations with them.

I have approached the addictions unit in St. Lukes in Armagh about getting a meeting started there. They are quite interested in this and have requested me to forward some info. about N.A. to them, which I have done. I am now waiting to hear from them.

We are getting together a P.R. service committee meeting. It will take place in Shaftsbury Sq. hospital next Sunday the 18th November after the N.A. meeting there

Treasurer report: NO REPORT

Prison report: Oct/Nov 2007

Meeting going strong with regular newcomers and an average of 9. Date of meeting is now the 2nd last Monday of every month. There is now A2 size posters on every landing and literature has been received. The cheque has been passed to our treasurer.

Presentation went better than expected; good turn out with governors, prison officers, doctors, councillors, therapists and one priest. There were many questions and some fears were reassured.

Because of the presentation the governor has requested an all day workshop in the new year to the main body of the prison. He has been told that this will take a lot of planning, but is something we should work towards.

Many thanks to Brownie, Paul O and Jonnie V for their support. They helped make it the success it was.

Expenses this month £30 (given to Ian M.
