Literature report:

Literature secretary's report June 08

I have enclosed a full break down of what literature I have, how much balance to date I have, and how much is owed. There was a mix up with the information day in Derry. There literature could not be got in time for the start of that day so I supplied the literature until theirs arrived. I have since then been reimbursed for what was loaned out but still I need to be paid by the H&I/P.I committee the sum of £34 for i.p's I will take this up with the committee at the next committee meeting.

Cash balance £199

Money to Be Collected £34

Total Cash Balance after monies collected £233

Cash value of literature still to be sold £792.49

Statistics

The log analyser reports 8076 unique visitors for the month May and 1669 for June so far which appears to be a slight upturn in traffic.

Contact

Over the past month there has been no contact from the still suffering addict but there has been information regarding a number of upcoming international conventions and a fundraising event for the Southern area later this month, details of which have been forwarded on.

There was a bit of controversy about the proceeds of last years Recovery by the Sea event in Newcastle but after speaking with one of the organisers, Brian D, it was decided to leave the message on our guestbook and to make available the spreadsheet of the entire income and expenses on our forum

P&I/H&I report:

H&I/P.I. Committee Report May 08

Derry: The information day in Derry went really well with a lot of interest from various agencies, northlands want the fellowship to do a regular presentation every 6 weeks to their patients, the prison want us to do a presentation or open meeting in July with the possibility of it being a regular thing every 4 weeks. The Derry group members are keen to get involved with the possibility of them taking over responsibility for the presentations within northlands. The Drug strategy team also want us to do two presentations to both their staff and also a group of young people they counsel. A lot of this at the minute is just talk. We will chase up what contacts we have over the next few months to try and make these things happen. The down side of the day was that all their speakers over ran on their allocated time, unfortunately, Paul. O our speaker did not get a chance to speak we were all disappointed by this but the Northlands have apologised and are keen to get our fellowship in their institution.

Phone line: After a long discussion, we have made some new guidelines where the phone line is concerned. 1, that there will be a strict policy of a minimum of one year clean time required to be of service on the phone line, 2, that under no circumstances will anyone without being trained in using the phone line be able to serve on the phone line. 3, anyone found abusing the phone line in anyway will be immediately relieved from there service position. 4, we will be planning a workshop within the next few weeks to train up people interested in being of service on the phone line. 5, finally all members of the committee have agreed that as a show of commitment to the committee that we all will do 4 weeks service on the phone line.

Prison: The meeting is running well at the moment and is being attended by both newcomers and regular members. With the bank holiday at the beginning of May, there was not enough staff to bring all the people who was on the list to attend. 18 were on the list 2 were able to attend. Need commitment from people to keep this meeting running “you do not have to have been in jail to carry our message into the prison please remember this is an important service, people in institutions’ have no other way of hearing our message if we don’t bring it to them”. Expenses £30
