Contact

Not much to report this month. There was one request for information on starting a meeting to be posted to someone's address, the address however was in California and I sent a link to the Southern California fellowship and have received no reply since.

There was also a request from a member in east coast of Scotland area wanting to know what was involved in setting up our website as this are will be setting up their own. I replied with my experience on this matter.

In service,

Steve W
