Web Report June 2010

Usage

I've been using Google Analytics on the site for the past few months to get a better insight into how many people are using it and what they are doing while on the site.

April had 263 visits by 198 people, May had 270 visits by 192 people and June so far has had 111 visits by 91 people.

The guestbook and meeting list pages account for a lot of time spent on the site, with the majority of visitors arriving via Google search results, followed by direct traffic and then referrals from the Irish and UK regional sites.
